THE OX CATTLE — In answer to the inquiry of [illegible] N. H. I will say that [illegible] simple and economical way of killing [illegible] cattle is to take the water in which potatoes have been boiled and thoroughly [illegible] the cattle which are afflicted in this way [illegible] week for two or three weeks [illegible] until the nits are all hatched out, and the stock of [illegible] will be among the things that were and are not. The remedy is so simple that some will not believe until they have tried it. It is nevertheless, a sure cure, if faithfully and thoroughly applied.

Another remedy is an ounce of preventive—good feed, good water, good clean sheds and stables, and lice will not colonize in that vicinity.—[illegible] Farmer.

Letter from Florence City.

FLORENCE CITY, Aug. [illegible] 1862

Editor Oregonian:

Agreeable to promise I send you a few lines to let you and your numerous readers know what is transpiring in this country. For the last few days [illegible] has been the [illegible] about [illegible] miles [illegible] on the [illegible] of the river. Men have been and are still going at all hours of the day, seeming to be [illegible] and that there are good diggings there [illegible] pack trains have gone over and some beef cattle and I believe a few sheep. This place is almost deserted, nearly all the miners out of employment having gone to the new mines, [illegible] is the thing that speaks well for the new diggings, there are [illegible] few persons coming back and they [illegible] a pretty good story. A great many say it is found to be a better mining camp than this ever was, but I for one [illegible] part of the story as yet although [illegible] it is a good mining district. I am fully satisfied that these mountains [illegible] sits and all that is wanting is [illegible] industry and perseverance [illegible]

The demand for horses and mules has been great [illegible] they have sold at high figures [illegible] kind of a Cayuse [illegible] and can buy [illegible] [illegible] who have [illegible] out to go to the new mines [illegible] majority of the miners [illegible] the poorest [illegible] man to get employment [illegible] dust, owing to the lack of [illegible] Wages at the new diggings [illegible] I am informed by those who have [illegible] There is an Express [illegible] the new mines [illegible] week [illegible] Thursdays.

Most of the [illegible] in the new mines is coarser than the gold taken out here, and about the same quantity with the gold from one [illegible] quality than this [illegible] in it.

I shall visit [illegible] in a few days, and see for myself [illegible] Should they prove to be [illegible] I would not advise any one to come here this Fall, for by the time they [illegible] it will be so late they [illegible] to [illegible] upon them. So take [illegible] advice and stay at home, but next Spring I have every reason to believe [illegible] could do well by coming here. [illegible] have passed while I have been writing on their way to the new El Dorado. Success to them.

[illegible] what I have written about these new mines [illegible] the best information [illegible] misrepresented [illegible] certainly been unintentional, not wishing to mislead any one nor would I advise any [illegible] to the mines, were they [illegible] mining, at least as far as my [illegible] goes, is the most uncertain [illegible] man ever followed. Trade in this place is quite dull, excepting the horse market. Provisions [illegible] plenty and cheap. Flour is worth [illegible] per hundred, [illegible] to 50c. fresh beef, 20 to 25c., and other things in proportion.

The OREGONIAN is still a welcome visitor to these parts, being [illegible] by the most of our Union [illegible] May it still go on sustaining the Administration in trying to crush the present unholy rebellion.

I am going over to the new mines. You will hear from me again [illegible] ANGUS MOON

[illegible] ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF THE EMPEROR OF RUSSIA.—We have received positive information of an attempt made within the last few days upon the life of the Emperor of Russia. As Alexander was walking in the gardens of his palace at St. Petersburg he was fired upon by an assassin. The most strenuous efforts have been made by the Russian Government to prevent the news from getting abroad, or in case of any rumor finding its way out to indicate it to be confused with a reported but [illegible] authentic attempt of the same kind, which [illegible] some alarm several weeks back. Indeed the Russian Government exhibits at present the most lively anxiety to stop political intelligence from either entering or passing out of Russia. So much is this the case that we [illegible] positively assure [illegible] that the Queen's messenger who has just returned from St. Petersburg, was stopped on the frontier [illegible] the [illegible] with the [illegible] Foreign Minister, was taken [illegible] and searched, and then [illegible] to St. Petersburg. The [illegible] extraordinary proceedings is believed to have been a suspicion that the bag [illegible] been [illegible] means of conveying [illegible] Russia communications which the Russian Government [illegible] kept out of the country.—London [illegible]

WEDNESDAY MORNING SEPT 10 1862

From Salem

As seen elsewhere in to-day's paper we have received the intelligence that both branches of the Legislative Assembly of the State have permanently organized preparatory for business. The organization was effected in both branches very speedily and unanimously, and notwithstanding the fact that a large number of candidates were present seeking the various positions provided by the constitution as necessary and useful, still we are informed that the members made their selections quickly and with equity for their choice and what is [illegible] we have the assurance that no [illegible] have been made throughout the entire number. We are pleased to know that a body of men have now assembled in a legislative capacity at our State capital whose present physique indicate honesty and capacity to discharge the trust confided in them by the people of the State. An earnest is already given that their proceedings will be marked with energy and determination to do the very best for their respective constituents and the State at large, and we confidently trust the present session will prove superior to former sessions in point of beneficial and necessary legislation and general respectability. As was very appropriately remarked by Gov. Palmer upon thanking the House for the honor conferred in selecting him as Speaker, he hoped that all came to the Capital for the honest discharge of their duty as Legislators, laying aside party and personal strife, [illegible] each endeavor to discharge his whole duty without fear, favor or affection. The condition of the country demands such a course, and our people expect it. We cannot but rejoice at another fact presented by this Assembly, that is, there are but three, in both branches, who bear the stain of secession or marks of treasonable proclivities—two in the Senate and one in the House. The two in the Senate are two who held over from last session, their terms of office not expiring until after this session. Hence, if [illegible] could have been held for the places they occupy at our last election we have good reason to believe that their presence would not now defile the Senate Chamber. The one in the House forcibly reminds us of the "last rose of summer left withering alone." All his party companions have "skedaddled" and gone. How he happened to get in is a matter of some curiosity, but now that he is in, we presume the rest of the Assembly will have to tolerate his presence, remembering the old quotation, "That it is hard to find a flock without one black sheep."

Important matters will come up before this Legislature, in which the interests of our people, the reputation of our State and the future prosperity, happiness and grandeur of this coast, will depend largely upon their results, and we shall look with much interest upon the proceedings as they shall be reported from day to day.

Our Late Editor, Major Francis.—We will not deny ourselves the gratification of copying some extracts from the Union Herald, a paper published in Springfield, Illinois, and dated June 12, 1862, in reference to the late Editor of the Oregonian. The Herald is a Democratic paper. Major Francis has been, and still seems to be a cause of great trouble to the Secession Editors of this State, and may, with truth, be said to be one of the best abused men on this Coast.

Many of our readers will doubtless be interested in reading, in other columns of this paper, letters from S. Francis, Esq., from Fort Vancouver, Washington Territory. Mr. F. was a resident of this place over a quarter of a century, coming here in 18[illegible]. He and his brother Josiah, [illegible] ex-Justice of the Peace, in 1831 established the Sangamo Journal under the firm name of S. & J. Francis; at that time, there were, perhaps, less than half a dozen papers published in this State. In fact, their advertising patronage extended from Paris on the East to Quincy on the West and to the Northern extremity of the State. The few papers then published were principally South of this. The paper has undergone several changes, in name, since then: the first change was made by adding [illegible], making it read Sangamo Journal; the next was adding Illinois, making it Illinois Journal; then State was placed between, making it Illinois State Journal. It underwent as many changes in the style of firm names, but S. Francis' name was always first. Josiah, Newton and Allen, his three brothers, were at different periods, partners, until S. & A. Francis sold out to Messrs. Baillhache & Baker, the present proprietors.

Central Illinois is indebted to this same S. Francis, more for the commencement and improvement in horticulture, than any other person. He was always the friend and ardent supporter of the agriculturist, and early encouraged the raising of fruit in this county. He was the first to import fruit trees and shrubbery from the East to this place. None but those of us who came here in early time can realize the trouble and expense then attending the importing of trees, shrubbery, etc., from the East. Year after year he would send East for trees, shrubbery, dahlias, roses, bulbs, [illegible] and furnish them to [illegible] at [illegible] and not unfrequently at a sacrifice. He might properly be termed the founder of the Horticultural Society in this place; the splendid display of [illegible] Stars and Stripes [illegible] Bring [illegible] Bailhache & Baker [illegible] Springfield [illegible] hold the [illegible] country [illegible] a President [illegible] in appointing him Pay Master in the [illegible] State [illegible]

We doubt whether there is an editor now living, that is so generally known throughout the length and breadth of this State as Mr. F. [illegible] all who know him will [illegible] him [illegible] something somewhat that of an old [illegible] to [illegible] with [illegible] we hope to be favored with frequent communications from him.

Salem Correspondence

Salem, August 8, 1862

Ed. Oregonian:

Salem presents an unusual amount of interest. The convening of the Legislature draws to this place as a centre persons from all parts of the State, some as seekers of Legislative offices, others who have favorite measures to pass, and aspirants for the United States Senate, [illegible] —The organization of both Houses was effected to-day quietly and promptly. Washington county is honored by the election of Dr. Bowlby as President of the Senate, and Yamhill, by that of Gov. Palmer as Speaker of the House. The Doorkeeper of the Senate, Mr. [illegible], is from Multnomah. The Assistant Clerk of the Senate, and also that of the House are from Yamhill. Mr. Church, the Chief Clerk of the House, is from Linn. The Enrolling Clerk is from Clatsop [illegible]. The Legislature [illegible] a working body, and they are strong Union men. [illegible] Breckinridge Democrats in the House [illegible] voted blank in all the elections [illegible] Only two members are absent, and [illegible] are they are not likely to attend. They are Col. Kelly of the Senate, from Clackamas, and Dr. Wilcox [illegible] from Washington. Conjecture is busy upon the Senatorial question, but it is too early to predict with any degree of probability who will be successful in the race. The election of Gov. Palmer is thought by some to be an index to the proper answer. [illegible]

CIVIS.

[Dr. Wilcox came down from the mines night before last, and will go to Salem to-morrow.—Ed.]

When the Tax Bill goes into Effect.—The Treasury Department has issued the following order that the Tax Law shall go into effect on the 1st of September, 1862:

Treasury Department, July 2[illegible] 1862.

By authority of a joint resolution of the Congress of the United States, approved on the 17th day of July instant, notice is hereby given that the 1st day of September next is fixed and determined upon as the day on which the act to provide internal revenue to support the Government and to pay interest on the public debt shall be put into practical operation, and any act or thing which in said act is required to be done on or before the 1st day of July or August, in the year 1862, shall be done on or before the 1st day of September 1862, and all parts of said act having reference to said dates of the 1st days of July and August 1862, shall be taken and construed as having reference to the 1st day of September 1862. Collectors and assessors will be appointed, and whatever other things may be necessary to put the act into practical operation will be done before the date fixed by this notice.

We learn that Thomas Frazar, Esq., has received a commission as assessor and will immediately enter upon his duties.

L. W. Coe, Esq., Collector of Taxes, we are informed gave bonds in the States.

State Taxes Payable in Coin only.—In the case of John Perry, Jr. vs. J. H. Washburn, the Supreme Court of California at Sacramento has decided that the Act of Congress does not apply to taxes due to the States; coin only is receivable. Taxes are not debts within the meaning of the Act. Whether U. S. Legal Tender Notes are receivable for debts is not decided.

We presume this decision will hold good in this State also.

The California Election.—The only news we have from the California elections comes through the Yreka Journal of the 6th. The fusion of Democracy and Secession have carried almost their entire ticket in Siskiyou county. The Journal says:

The Union ticket in the lower part of the State, as far as heard from, is sweeping everything before it by large majorities.

A True Test of Position.—When you hear a man earnestly denouncing traitors and traitors' rebels, and [illegible] you may put him down as a Union man without [illegible] who is in favor of maintaining the Union and the Constitution at all hazards and at any cost; when you hear a man loud in his denunciation of the Administration and of Abolitionists, charging that the war is prosecuted for abolition and emancipation purposes, you may safely put him down either as a Union man with sundry qualifications, or an earnest sympathizer with the rebellion.

Niagara Falls Illuminated.—The Horse Shoe and American Falls at Niagara were illuminated on the 4th of July by means of lights placed behind the sheet of water. The effect is said to have been very beautiful.

Elias Howe, of Bridgeport, inventor of the sewing machine, and [illegible] in Connecticut, after giving $2,000 to the enlistment fund, has enlisted himself unconditionally, and announced that he will not procure a substitute.

A French genealogist has found out that the Empress Eugenie is the true heiress of the throne of Mexico, through her Spanish ancestors who are descendants of Montezuma.

The casualties of all kinds in the Army of the Western Department (late Halleck's) since it went into the field are stated at [illegible], of which 10,000 are [illegible] death and absence from sickness, and 18,000 to various casualties by battle.

Morgan came very near being captured at Paris, Ky. While he was at breakfast Gen. Smith's cavalry dashed into town and was shooting down the horses in the streets. Morgan escaped in his slippers, leaving his breakfast untasted.

Sale of Wheat in California.—In Santa Clara county, Cal., 1,000 sacks of choice milling wheat was sold at $1.7[illegible] per one hundred pounds, being the half of the crop harvested, and the balance held [illegible]

The report was unanimously adopted.

The Acting Secretary of the State [illegible] Terry administered the oath of office [illegible] members.

The House now proceeded to the election of permanent officers.

Palmer, Mallory, Brown and Moore were put in nomination for Speaker [illegible] Palmer was elected.

Mallory, Brown and Moore were appointed a committee to conduct the Speaker to the chair.

Mr. Palmer said: "Many of you, gentlemen, have doubtless [illegible] that I was well versed in the laws and rules of legislation. I am sorry that my qualifications are no better than they are. I require your assistance, patience and [illegible] We have matters of grave importance before us, and it is to be hoped that we will maintain a feeling of friendship and harmony, and suppress as much as possible all feelings of partyism and sectional prejudice, and hurry on with our work and get home to our affairs. The times demand that we should be harmonious—the people expect it. I thank you for the honor conferred upon me." (Applause.)

The following officers were elected: S. E. Church of Linn county, Chief Clerk; [illegible] Cummins of Lane, Assistant Clerk; [illegible] Cranfill, of Marion, Enrolling [illegible]; H. B. Parker, of Clatsop, Sergeant-at-Arms; [illegible] Myers, of Marion, Doorkeeper.

The Secretary of the State then administered the oath of office to the officers [illegible]

On motion the Senate was informed that the House was organized and ready for business.

On motion a committee was appointed to act in conjunction with a similar committee from the Senate to wait upon the Governor and notify him that the House was organized and ready to receive any communication from him.

The rules of the previous session were adopted.

Rabid, Glandered, and Typhoid (charbonneuses) Diseases.

Among the ordinary severe diseases of animals, which sometimes occasion serious mischief to agriculture, from their transmissibility to the human species, these are the most fearful, and withal the most important for study, in regard to their manner of transmission. Nevertheless, but very little progress has been made in respect to a question at once so serious and so complex. Science is still far from being au fait on this point; so that the administration, with reason, hesitates and trembles when it has to take measures against these firebrands.

Struck with these doubts and incertitudes, M. M. Directors of the School, undertook and incessantly pursued for upwards of twenty years experiments, both varied and numerous, which have already cast considerable light upon this subject. We have already, in preceding reports, communicated what M. Renault has accomplished This year he has added what follows.

Guided by actual facts, elicited by science, on the properties of virulent matters, the police regulations now prescribe, under very heavy penalties, to destroy and bury at a certain depth, distant from any dwelling house, the offal, skin, and flesh of animals that have died of contagious diseases. But, from numerous trials made in the course of 1850, it has resulted that in the state even of desiccation in which such matters are used in the arts, the utilisable debris possess no danger, either for animals or for man. Indeed, in none of the many experiments in which M. Renault has inoculated with desiccated matter, even of that most virulent and active, he has not been able to even produce the slightest local effect on animals whom he has inoculated.

He has, on several occasions, placed in small houses, containing dried skins taken from such dead sheep that had the rot fifteen or twenty days before, healthy living sheep, for upwards of a month, without one sheep having contracted the disease.

And the same with another disease—glanders. He has tied up horses in health with halters that have been covered with glandered matter which has been dried upon them by exposure to air for about twenty days, and not one horse has taken the disease.

Experiments made in the same manner with putrid matter have yielded similar results.

Whence may be drawn this important inference—that contgious matters in a state of putrefaction or when completely desiccated by free exposure to air, loses its poisonous properties.

M. Renault has had the misfortune of having made no progress towards the cure of that dreadful disease, rabies; though he has ascertained it as a fact that, up to the present time none of the animals on whom the wounds from bites and inoculations have been thoroughly cauterized within twenty-four hours after inoculation or bite, have contracted madness.

He has likewise equally established the facts that, out of the number of individuals bitten by mad dogs, and left without any treatment, one-third is the greatest proportion that contract the disease; the public believing generally that almost all the bitten subjects catch this cruel malady.

The transfusion of blood from two dogs in a state of madness into the veins of two dogs in health, produced no effect. The same (no) result has taken place on inoculation with blood taken by pricks into the veins of mad animals.

Lastly M. Renault has this year presented to the Academy of Sciences a long account, comprehending all the experiments on the effects of ingestion of poisonous matters into the digestive canal, both of man and domestic animals.

The conclusions of this work effect the public hygiene and industrial economy:—

That there exists no sanitary reason why pigs and poultry should not be nourished with the debris of yards and knackers' residences, let them be where they will.

That the flesh of these animals undergoes no modification, no appreciable diminution of quality, after they are fed with virulent matters; and that however conceivable the repugnance of man to feed upon the flesh or milk of oxen, sheep, or poultry, affected with contagious disease, there is not, in reality, any danger in eating FLESH THAT HAS BEEN COOKED, OR MILK THAT HAS BEEN BOILED, coming from such animals.—Veterinarian.

About Pins.

The manufacture of pins in this country was first undertaken soon after the war of 1812; when in consequence of the interruption to commerce, the value of a paper of pins was not less than one dollar, and those were of a very inferior quality to those now only worth six cents a paper. By the old method of manufacture the number of distinct processes was fourteen. Now they are manufactured in Connecticut by a self-acting machine, which completes them by one process and sticks them into the papers also! The only attention the sticking machine requires is to supply it with pins and paper. At the present time the total weight of pins made in the United States, is supposed to be from seven to ten tons a week. What indeed becomes of all the pins! When we reflect that up to the middle of the fourteenth century, English ladies were obliged to make use of clumsy wooden skewers, we can appreciate the abundance and cheapness of these useful little articles. Yet nothing is now under the sun, and pins are found in Egyptian tombs, of much more costly and elaborate make than those now used Some of these are eight inches long and furnished with large gold heads. The ladies "pin money," in those days must have been quite an item in the domestic expenses.

THE FASTEST TROTTING.—At a race on the Fashion Course, L. I. on the 3d of June, two mares, Jilt and Lady Emma, made the unparalleled consecutive time of 2:28½, 2:29½, 2:30, and 2:31, to wagon. Neither Flora Temple nor Geo. M. Patchen ever made so many consecutive heats at the same time. The old Field Marshall himself, the veteran Hiram Woodruff, who, for the last quarter of a century, is so intimately associated with the trotting history of Long Island, who has piloted more horses to victory than any other driver living, and who drove the winner of this race, declared he never would have anticipated such fast consecutive time being made.—American Stock Journal.

Non-Resident Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah, at the November Term thereof, A D 1862.

S. Sherlock, W. Sherlock and C. P. Bacon, partners in trade under the firm name and style of S. Sherlock & Co., Plaintiffs, vs. A. J. Cain, Defendant.

IT HAVING BEEN MADE TO APPEAR TO THE SATISFACTION of the Judge of said Court that you, the said A. J. Cain, are not a resident of the State of Oregon and cannot be found in said State [illegible] and that you have property in said State, and that said court has jurisdiction of the subject of the above entitled action, and that [illegible] summons cannot be made on you, and the [illegible] of action in the suit [illegible] against you, it was ordered that service be made in this cause by publication of notice to you, the said A. J. Cain. Now the said defendant, A. J. Cain, is hereby notified that the said plaintiffs have filed their complaint against you, the said defendant, in said Court, claiming to recover [illegible] with interest thereon at [illegible] per cent. per annum, from the 1st day of April, A. D. 1861, for a balance due them for goods, wares and merchandize sold and by them delivered to you. And also that [illegible] an attachment against your goods and chattels, lands and tenements and a writ of attachment was duly issued and levied upon your property.

Now, unless you, the said A. J. Cain, shall be and appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah county, on the second Monday in November, A. D. 1862, and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, the same will be taken for confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this the 8th day of August, A. D. 1862.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY

Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine. ☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

OFFICE HOURS—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pain in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing, or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and permanent cure. Private diseases are the great enemy to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of two of the cures from the jaws of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agents, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The [illegible] their publicity and we commend them personally to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned desirous of recommending those who may be unfortunate enough to be in any way afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practice of [illegible] passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance, but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and, being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, [illegible] would be of little consequence. I despaired to ever regain my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my health became perfectly restored. [illegible] the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasant dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With this view to avoid the untimately and injustice due to the success of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of his services, being assured by my own experience that one under his care is cured and perfectly restored.

R. F. DELMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April A. D. 1858. Signed

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 24, 1855.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY: Sir,—[illegible] I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely regained my strength yet, but soon will with the increased force. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your Institute, with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely down, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thanks to you I was able to do something for my [illegible] and head and strengthen my [illegible] and trembled at every thing. [illegible] I expected, you may judge of my [illegible] complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of these sores and the itching from my skin and the [illegible] and those gross depositions [illegible] were principally the [illegible] tell you what is the [illegible] except the feeling fully [illegible] can be.

[illegible] twenty in this very severe change, and the [illegible] cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Respectfully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves public record, that not only as an act of extraordinary skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit (Epilepsy), which owing to my incapacity to meet the expenses [illegible] of my calling, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, so became [illegible] to do the skill of any physician. [illegible] whole pursuit of my calling, [illegible] with out the slightest warning, [illegible] the patient [illegible] thereby despised the [illegible] look upon those who would [illegible] of my misery. [illegible] things, [illegible] my affliction, [illegible] induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay [illegible] a perfect cure, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him or the boon which I enjoy at present on [illegible] I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make this case public, in order that they in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
